

Funded by the European Union

MEDIA
INITIATIVES
CENTER

YEREVAN PRESS CLUB ANNUAL AWARD - 2026

ON JULY 18, 2026, at the Ibis Yerevan Center Hotel in Yerevan, the Yerevan Press Club (YPC) Ethical Journalism Award ceremony was held, commemorating the 31th anniversary of the Yerevan Press Club. The awards are organized under the framework of the EU-funded "Media Quality and Resilience Initiative" project.

The aim of the Ethical Journalism Award is to encourage the continued development of ethical journalism in Armenian media outlets and to promote consistent adherence to universal standards of professional ethics and the provisions of the "Code of Ethics of Armenian Media and Journalists".

YPC Ethical Journalism Award 2025-2026 winners

YPC Award

Gayane KHACHATRYAN, Journalist at Factor TV. The Award was given by Frank Hess, Head of the Cooperation of the EU Delegation in Armenia.

YPC Award

Harutyun MANSURYAN, Project Manager at Hetq Media Factory. The Award was given by Seda Shiganyan, YPC Vice President

YPC Award

Suren DEHERYAN, Founding Editor of Ampop Media. The Award was given by Armenuhi Soukiasyan, YPC Executive Director.

YPC Award

Hayk NAVASARDYAN, Commentator at Armenia TV. The Award was given by Nune Sargsyan, Executive Director of the Media Initiatives Center.

This event is organized in the framework of the "Initiative for Media Quality and Resilience" project funded by the European Union and implemented by the Media Initiatives Center in collaboration with Yerevan Press Club, Media Diversity Institute - Armenia, and International Media Support.